1)	This passage provides solutions for which kinds of problems?
2)	What kind of life does the Holy Spirit give us the power to live? What does that life look like?
3)	What does it mean to have no condemnation? Why is that important? What difference does that make?
4)	What did Pastor Tom say was the purpose of the law? If it wasn't designed to make us righteous, how do we become righteous? Why is that important?
5)	Why is it such a big deal to be free from the control of sin? Do you feel that your life is characterized by struggle?
6)	What is God's responsibility in removing our condemnation and living free from sin? What is our responsibility?
7)	How could you use this message to share the gospel with someone? Can you think of anyone in your life that this message would encourage or convict?
