

elder NOMINEES

At Calvary Church, the elders provide oversight to the church. They meet several times each month to pray and to consider church direction and policy. The selection of elders will take place by casting of lots at the Annual Meeting on October 25. If you have serious objections to any nominee, please contact the elders (elder@calvarygr.org).

Don Armbrester

Don and his wife, Stacy, have been married for 27 years and have been blessed with five children ranging in ages from 17 to 24. Their family has attended Calvary for 18 years. Don currently serves as the treasurer for Calvary and as the chairman of the finance committee. He recently joined the Jerusalem Project as a finance representative and also serves on several other committees focused on benevolence, food service and facilities.

Steve Bagley

Steve and his wife, Ann, have been married for 22 years and are thankful for their four children. They started attending Calvary Church as a dating couple and became members more than 10 years ago. Steve has volunteered and taught in children and middle school programs on Wednesday nights for many years. He has also participated in Leadership Development Forum, co-facilitated a Sunday morning adult class, greeted on Sunday mornings, helped with various tasks/committees (tear-down at Calvin, personnel committee), and served as a deacon. For the past four years, he and Ann have enjoyed being middle school small group leaders.

Eric Cerling

Eric has been married to his wife, Louise for 48 years, and they have three married daughters and six grandchildren. Eric and Louise began attending Calvary 36 years ago, and regularly attend the Baby Boomers and Ambassador adult congregations. The couple has a strong interest in missions with Eric having gone on several short-term mission trips (Tanzania and Russia). He is also a current member of the Strategic Initiatives Team, has worked with the Benevolence Team, volunteers with Hands of Jesus, and served several past terms as deacon and elder.

Brent Enders

Brent & Nickie Enders will be celebrating 25 years of marriage this fall and have been attending Calvary Church for 15+ years, members for 10+ years. They've been blessed & gifted with three awesome children (two in college & one in high school).

The entire family has served for years in Sunday children's ministries. Brent has served as a deacon and on a number of committees (including stewardship, personnel, women's & student's). He's also participated in the Leadership Development Forum & facilitated a small community group together with Nickie for a number of years.

Steve Gronsman

Steve and his wife Cindy have been married for 28 years and are blessed with two children. They both came to Calvary in 1989, where they met and were married. Steve and Cindy have both been blessed to serve in many areas throughout the church. Steve is currently serving on the board of New Heart church; he is also involved with Jail Ministry, the Strategic Initiatives team, and Children's Ministry. Steve previously served as an Elder and a Deacon.

Jason Jones

Jason and Holly have been married for 25 years and have two daughters and one son-in-law. They have attended Calvary Church for 10 years. Jason currently serves with Holly on the communion preparation team, is an usher and is a member of the personnel committee. In the past he has been an adult small group leader, middle school ministry leader, served on a short-term mission trip to Guyana and volunteered in the Connection Point.

David Oviatt

Dave and Susie Oviatt have been part of Calvary since 1982. They have been married 44 years, have 2 adult sons, 2 wonderful daughters-in-law, and 5 adorable grandchildren. Dave has participated in the Benevolence Team, Children's Ministry, MOAT Committee, and has served one term as Elder. After early retirement in 2006, he and Susie have served on about twenty one to two-month medical mission trips under the auspices of Samaritan's Purse, serving throughout Africa as well as in Bangladesh and Papua New Guinea.
