

“Therefore as God’s chosen people, holy and dearly loved, clothe yourselves with compassion, kindness, humility, gentleness and patience. Bear with each other and forgive one another if any of you have a grievance against someone. Forgive as the Lord forgave you. And over all these virtues put on love, which binds them together in perfect unity.”

Colossians 3:12-14

COMPASSION

Have our hearts ached for those who are suffering?

KINDNESS

How have we helped those who are in need?

HUMILITY

Are we saying to God in this season when things don’t go our way, “Not my will but yours be done”?

GENTLENESS

Are we gentle with others who we disagree with about masks or politics or the holidays?

PATIENCE

Are we patient as we wait for God to come and do things?

BEARING WITH OTHERS

Are we silently putting up with others sins and shortcomings or are we demanding perfection from them?

FORGIVENESS

Have we asked for forgiveness from God and from others? Have we freely forgiven others keeping no record of their wrongs?

LOVE AND UNITY

Are we united with others who are different that we are? United with people of different political persuasions, different ethnic backgrounds, loving our enemies and neighbors?
