1. What comes to mind when you think of purity? Is it God? How is God the ultimate example of purity? How have you seen or experienced His purity in your life?
2. Why do you think God let sin sneak into the world?
3. Where have you seen the consequences of sin, yours and others, in your life?
4. In the midst of a confusing world, how can you know when you are walking in purity?
5. Have you felt comfortable with your sin sometimes? How can we hate sin as God does?
6. In light of God's holiness and need to be around only holy things, how is the gospel good news to us, as sinners, in this week's message?
7. Which of the ten suggestions of growing in purity are you being encouraged to implement in your life this week? Are you ready and willing to do it? What are some possible barriers to implementing this particular change? How can you prepare for or work to overcome those challenges?
